Preparing for Next Sunday's Gospel

Feast of the Baptism of the Lord "A"

Matthew 3:13-17

"This is my beloved Son!"

Chances are I don't remember my baptism but what impact did and does that event have on my life?

In my baptism sin was washed away. What effect has sin had in my life since then? Am I aware of sin? What am I doing about sin today?

Am I trying to be more of a beloved son or a beloved daughter to my Heavenly Father as Jesus is to his?

Prayer: Lord Jesus, though sinless, you submitted to a baptism of repentance so that you might take your place with us sinners. Help me to welcome you and to learn from your example.

Amen!

SUPPER CLUB!!

The Supper Club will be taking a break until after the holidays, and then the weather will be a factor.

Please let Angela, Ann, or Cheryle know of any restaurants you'd like us to add to the list.

Preparing for Next Sunday's Petitions

That through the waters of Baptism, which join together the Mystical Body of Christ, God may bring unity and love to His Church

That through the waters of Baptism, which wash away sin, we may be free from what separates us from God

That through the waters of Baptism, which open the ear and eye, God may show us His love and speak His word to us

That all those who do not know Christ or have not accepted Him as God among us, may be brought to the waters of Baptism

That God may give those graced with Baptism new strength to live out their Baptismal resolutions

That parishioners of St. Mary's who come to Christ in faith, may know his care

That through the waters of Baptism, which bring new life, the dead may live anew in Christ

Let Us Pray to the Lord
